Andorra-only Trip: Saturday, March 3, fly Air France from Dulles to Barcelona through Paris. We'll spend 7 nights in 5-star Hotel Crowne Plaza in Andorra la Vella. Daily breakfasts and 5 nights' dinner including Blue Ridge Ski Council Eurofest welcome party, après-ski party, and farewell dinner-dance. Hotel amenities include indoor pool, Jacuzzi, Turkish bath, solarium, sauna, gymnasium, and massage. Rooms have TVs, coffee/tea makers, safes, phones, hair dryers, and bathrobes. Stopover at the Montserrat Monastery in Spain, en-route from Barcelona to Andorra. Optional day trip to the medieval city of Carcassonne, France. Medical insurance (not cancellation) is included. Lift Tickets are extra. Participants 70 years+ ski for free; 65-69 ski for half price (need to show passport for both). Fly home on Sunday, March 11.

Andorra + Extension Trip: Same package for Andorra (except flights; see below). We'll fly from Dulles to Madrid on Wed., February 29. 3 nights in 4-star AC Carlton Hotel, located in the center of the city, includes breakfasts. An optional trip to Toledo is available. Sunday morning we take the high-speed train (or will possibly fly) to Barcelona and bus to Andorra. On return, we spend a half-day and night in Barcelona in 5-star NH Duc de la Victoria Hotel, near the Ramblas, and fly home on Monday, March 12.

About Andorra: Located in the Pyrenees Mountains between France and Spain, Andorra has two major ski areas: Grandvalira and Vallnord. The ski areas contain 10 different mountains, which are now much better connected than the last time we were there. They total 187 miles of trails covering 7,600 acres, 112 lifts, 1,482 snow cannons, and peak out at 8,660 feet with a 3,600-foot vertical. Lifts are open from 9 AM to 5 PM.
